FOR RELEASE

The opening session in a series of interior decorating programs, called Fashions in Living, at The Cleveland Museum of Art, will be March 19. There will be lectures at 10:30 AM and 8:15 PM, and television programs at 4 PM, ~~WXEL~~, Channel 9, on four succeeding Wednesdays. Mrs Robert M. Hornung will direct with guest speakers.

Austin Shannon, director of interior decorating, and Fanny Arms, fashion director of The Halle Brothers Company, will be commentators in the first programs. Mr Shannon will show color slides of room arrangements by House and Garden, followed by demonstrations of textiles against different color backgrounds with models, presented by Miss Arms, appropriately gowned, posing before them.

Speakers on the following Wednesdays, March 26 and April 2 and 9, will be Adelaide G. Briggs, director of Strawberry Hill Antiques; Betty Grayson, field editor of House and Garden; and William Pahlmann, president of William Pahlmann Associates, New York decorator.
